

December 13, 2020: Let Suffering Turn You Toward Others in Compassion

“Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep” (Romans 12:15)

As a response to today’s teaching by Pastor Scott Blevins, “CHURCH@HOME: God With Us in Suffering,” we offer a simple CHURCH@HOMEWORK “assignment:”

This week, if you know of someone who is going through suffering right now, or who has recently, please reach out to them with a word of encouragement or comfort, reminding them that God is with them- and you are too!

You can send a text, a note, call them, or reach out in other ways. Here are some resources that may be helpful to share with those who are suffering, or to seek out yourself:

Where is God When it Hurts? by Philip Yancey

Walking with God through Pain and Suffering by Timothy Keller

Prophetic Lament: A Call for Justice in Troubled Times by Soong-Chan Rah

Need more? Contact info@garfieldchurch.org and we’ll do our best to help!